

As a resident of Indiana, I strongly support my state's no-call law, and I oppose any attempt to weaken it by invoking the "established business relationship" exemption as proposed by the Consumer Bankers' Association.